

Dr. Cynthia M. Wallace

Candidate for Woodland Hills School Board

Strong Schools, Strong Community

Dr. Cynthia M. Wallace is an experienced educator, executive leader, and community advocate dedicated to strengthening schools and empowering children to reach their full potential. With over 30 years in education, she has served as a teacher, principal, counselor, professor, and nonprofit leader, always putting children and families at the center of her work. As a candidate for the Woodland Hills School Board, she brings a wealth of expertise and a passionate commitment to strengthening both our schools and our community.

Dr. Wallace's academic credentials include a Doctorate in Education Leadership from the University of Pittsburgh, where her research focused on addressing chronic absenteeism and strengthening family engagement in schools. She also holds two master's degrees in educational administration and counseling, complemented by multiple professional certifications.

As Executive Director of The Oasis Project and Executive Pastor of Bible Center Church, Dr. Wallace has overseen various educational and entrepreneurial initiatives that have transformed lives and communities. She has led multiple educational initiatives, including preschool programs, after-school enrichment, workforce training, and urban agriculture projects that help young people thrive. Dr. Wallace is a passionate advocate for making high-quality education accessible to all students.

As a resident of our community, Dr. Wallace understands firsthand the vital connection between strong schools and thriving neighborhoods. Her campaign slogan, "Strong Schools, Strong Community," reflects her belief that excellent education serves as a foundation for both individual student success and community prosperity. As a member of the Woodland Hills School Board, Dr. Wallace will work tirelessly to ensure students receive an excellent education that prepares them for a bright future. She is committed to making thoughtful, student-centered decisions that benefit children, families, and the entire district.
